The hourly rate for technical support is 139 EUR. The first hour of support is fully billed, regardless of the actual time it takes to troubleshoot. Each additional technician hour is billed in a customer-friendly manner every 15 minutes per hour. Of course, services for devices are not charged in the warranty, provided that the error is product-side and was not caused by incorrect operation.

139 € /
hour

Please note that any waiting time due to improper preparation will also be charged. We therefore recommend that the following is prepared and ensured:

- Stable internet connection (min. 2 Mbps)
- Windows with latest updates
- Administrative rights if applicable

By sending the signed online support form, you trigger a binding order.
